Dear Ms Dow,

Keith Babb is a liar. As soon as he said the truck was sold I went to his wife and told her I did not sell the truck. She said, "Yes you did." I told her, "You are not getting the title." When Keith Babb said the truck was sold, I shook my head no. The truck was worth about $3,500. He tried to sell the truck at $30 and when it got to $1,000, he said "Sold."

The truck had a perfectly good motor, a good 6 speed transmission, new tires, a good dump bed and lift cylinder on it. It was well worth $3,500. The frame had been broken but was welded back. I did not want to sell the truck for $1,000. When my daughter contacted Keith Babb, he refused to give my license plate back without giving him the title and picking up the check for $1,000, therefore, closing the deal. Later he said I could pick up the license plate but it was well after the 10 days the state allows to turn it in. Therefore I was charged a $125 fine through the Office of Motor Vehicles. I would like my truck returned or $3,500 since I refused the sale. Also I would like the $125 fee assessed reimbursed to me.

Thank You,

Frank D. Henson, Sr.
